

Student Residence Dublin

Buckley Hall

Buckley Hall Residence is a state-of-the-art residence located in the heart of the city, only 7 minutes by foot from the centre of Dublin, and 17 minutes' walk or a short tram ride from the Kaplan Aspect school. Buckley Hall enjoys excellent transportation links. The main railway station, Connolly station, and the LUAS tram line are a 4-minute walk away, while the main bus station is only one stop by tram.

The area is lively and there are many pubs, shops, a call/fax and internet facility and restaurants on the main road, all within a minute's walk from the residence. Buckley Hall accommodates approximately 130 students in total, and is split into several apartments, each containing one single and one twin room. There is a shared, open-plan kitchen-living room and dining area in each apartment. A warden lives on the premises and there is a security presence throughout the night.
