

Terms and Conditions Cambridge CBT

Deadlines for Computer Based exams are 1 week before the test date or in cases where the test date is a Saturday the deadline will be on a Friday (8 days before).

For Paper Based exams the deadlines are generally 4-5 weeks (8-11 weeks in Australia & New Zealand) before the test date. Students who submit their applications for paper based applications after the deadline are subject to paying a late fee.

All speaking tests take place on the same day as their respective computer or paper based exams. In Australia & New Zealand, speaking tests take place 1-2 weeks before the written sections of the exam.

Students can be refunded for their computer based exam if they give notice 2 weeks prior to the test date otherwise they will be charged the full test fee.

With paper based exams students can withdraw from their exam and request a refund on or before the deadline for entries otherwise they will be charged the full test fee.
