

Student Residence Bath

Carpenter House

This self-catering accommodation is offered in University of Bath student residence, Carpenter House, five minutes' walk from the college, and only two minutes from the bus and railway stations. The residence is a modern purpose-built building, and offers shared bathroom and a well-equipped kitchen with dining area for each six or seven bedrooms.

Very close to the John Wood complex, this newly refurbished residence houses students on four upper levels of an imposing building that faces you as you cross Churchill Bridge, which spans the River Avon. Kaplan students will share the residence with Bath University students, both from the UK and abroad.

Rooms are comfortable, spacious and light. Bed, mattress, desk, chair, wardrobe/hanging space, drawers, waste paper bin, mirror and pin-board are provided in each room.
