

Student Residence

London

Nido

Nido is a brand new student residence with the best in modern facilities in the heart of London. Situated in Kings Cross, the residence is within walking distance of many of central London's attractions and has excellent transport links. Kaplan International Colleges in London are both a short underground journey away.

With a capacity of 950 students, the residence is its own community where students can access wireless internet throughout the building, go to the gym and watch a film in the 50-seat screening room. Each student can cook for themselves in their own kitchenette or shared kitchen, or eat in the residence café. Students can also join the Nido community for organised themed nights throughout the year.

Nido residence is ideal for students who like more independence, want to cater for themselves and would like to live in a central location.
