

Accommodation - Toronto

89 Chestnut

89 Chestnut is a former highrise hotel which was converted into a student residence for University of Toronto students throughout the school year. In the summer they open their doors to the general public and offer some great typical student amenities at a reduced and convenient price which make it one of our highest value options for the summer. It is also close to the Eaton Centre, Nathan Phillips Square, the Financial District and the Theatre District and is conveniently located within 20 minutes walking distance to PLI.

Some amenities and services available:

- Full breakfast and dinner each day
- Weekly housekeeping
- Private bathroom with a hairdryer
- Linens are provided
- Free access to the fitness centre
- Coin operated laundry facilities
- Common rooms on each floor
- Large pub-style lounge with a giant flat-screen television on the main floor
- Common areas with microwaves and fridges
- Some wheelchair accessible rooms are available upon request
