

Student Residence Torquay

Marina's Apartment

Marina's apartment in Torquay is a small house that offers comfortable and conveniently located self-catering accommodation at an affordable price.

The house is ideally located just ten minutes from Torquay town centre, so students are well placed to sample everything on offer locally. The college is even closer, being only five minutes walk away.

Marina's consists of 2 double rooms and one single room with a capacity of up to 3 students. Each room has been tastefully decorated with plenty of storage. There is a fully fitted kitchen available to students, plus a communal dining room with wireless internet access throughout the building. The house also benefits from a small private garden.
